CHAIRMAN'S NEWSLETTER – 2007

Can you remember when you first set foot across the threshold of Holloway School? In my case it was all of 60 years ago – a sobering thought, which nevertheless needed a stiff brandy to fully appreciate. Since then, the School's outward appearance has, like mine, undergone considerable change, although its oldest parts are probably better preserved. With new additions and more rebuilding planned, the whole School complex is being geared to its recently acquired Sports College status and, of course, to the ongoing aim of raising educational standards. May I therefore, on behalf of all Old Camdenians, extend our warmest congratulations to the School on reaching its centenary and wish staff and students every success in their future endeavours – coupled, as ever, with our continued support.

SCHOOL CENTENARY

Previous bulletins have outlined some of the centenary celebrations held at the School and mentioned Old Camdenian involvement. Of particular note were two sessions in which groups of students, researching conditions during World War 2, interviewed O.Cs who had attended the School during the war years. This proved to be an extremely interesting and rewarding exercise for all concerned and raised the possibility of it becoming a regular end of year feature. If anyone would like to join the O.C. team of Richard Brown, Alan Burnett, George Ives, and Bob Pinker, please contact the Secretary.

The celebrations came to a very fitting climax with an evening of dance, music, film and drama held in July in the main hall. Those of us who had witnessed the previous School productions knew that we were in for a lively and memorable occasion and so it proved as, once again, the students showed just how talented they are where the performing arts are concerned.

The film element was a showing of 'Life in the Sixth Form' made by Brian Lofts and colleagues in 1956 (reported in earlier bulletins). This was extremely well received, not least because it emphasised how different school life was in those days compared to now. Incidentally, copies of the film, in DVD format, will be on sale at the Dinner (price £3) – a real bargain and excellent entertainment. Also available that night will be copies of 'The Centenary Retrospect (100 year history of Holloway School)' compiled by Dr John Hudson and assisted by Bob Hamlyn and George Ives.

The finale of the centenary evening was a particularly poignant rendering of the School Song which brought a few lumps to the throats of all the Old Camdenians present.

NEW MEMBERS

Once again we have been delighted to welcome several new members to our ranks during the year. They are:- John Aggar (56-61); Geoffrey Lee (55-62); Terry Mackulin (56-61); Fazal Miah (1995-2000); David Micou (65-70); Michael Rand (59-61); Rev'd Alan Tetlow (37-42); and Derek Woodward (53-58). Also Gerry Adams, Keith Coles and Bob Wilson (ex teacher and former Arsenal/Scotland goalkeeper).

CORRESPONDENCE

Tony Leonard has written from the depths of South Wales to say how sorry he was to read the obituaries for Ken Pitman and Frank Oirschott (see also In Memoriam). Tony recalls playing football many times alongside both Ken and Frank and enjoying their company afterwards in the Archway Tavern. He also has happy memories of the matches he played with George Ives, as do many of us – despite his insistence on keeping goal from the edge of the penalty area!

IN MEMORIAM

The mid-year Newsletter, issued in June, included tributes to Frank Oirschott, Ken Pitman and Gordon Wing all of whom sadly passed away during the year. It is with equal sadness that we have to report the passing of Angus McBride (43-47) and Paul Yates (43-51). The tributes attached have been provided by Bob Pinker and John Fitch respectively.

Also the Daily Telegraph recently reported that RJF Wilby (Fred) had died aged 92. Any further details we may receive will be reported in a future bulletin.

AGM AND ANNUAL DINNER – FRIDAY 30th NOVEMBER 2007

This event is always the highlight of our calendar but even more so this year in the view of the School's Centenary Celebrations. Whilst each Dinner produces something different some elements remain the same such as the cost (£25) and, of course, the bonhomie. Do please therefore make every effort to join us for this special occasion. It really will be a case of the more the merrier. First time attendees are particularly welcome, as are those whom we haven't seen for a while. As usual, full details, including how to obtain a ticket, can be found in the Secretary's Report and on the website.

O. CAMDENIANS v THE SCHOOL

The cricket match in April ended with a win for the Old Boys albeit against a rather depleted School side which needed a few reinforcements. The reverse was the case with the football match played on a glorious afternoon in September. This time the School side resounding won 8 v 0 to retain the trophy yet again, against a disappointingly weak Old Boys side. Sad to report also that spectator support on the day was almost non-existent despite the pre-match publicity. (Surely the north London derby at White Hart Lane wasn't to blame?)

CENTENARIES – 2009

Just a reminder that the Old Camdenians Club and the Old Camdenians Football Club both reach their centenary status in 2009. We need to start planning very soon and would very much welcome your input on how best to celebrate these important milestones. Please therefore bombard the Secretary or me with your ideas and suggestions, all of which will be gratefully received.

OTHER NEWS

- The 50+ Club has made a promising start and our thanks go to all those who have pledged their support. Further details will be found in the Secretary's Report.

- Alex Williamson is now in post as Headteacher at Rutlish School in Merton and we wish him every success in tackling the challenges ahead. Alex has emailed expressing his appreciation for all the support which the Old Camdenians gave him and the School during his time there as Deputy Head, and very much looks forward to being one of our guests at the Dinner.

- After many years of sterling work Peter Sumpter is standing down as guardian of the website. It is difficult to overstate the contribution which Peter (and his family) have made in building up the website to its present level and the Club owes him a tremendous debt of thanks. We are therefore urgently looking for a successor, so please contact the Secretary (or me) if you are interested and able to help out.

- Bill Wraight is 'jogging along' although, alas, not literally as arthritis has set in. Whilst his memory is 'not as good as it was' he clearly recalls being a late replacement in the 2nd XI many years ago against Kenton and running me out. No doubt it was my fault really – he never did that in the 1st XI!! Bill and Nora both send their very best wishes to all their old friends in the Club.

- Peg Lerner asks to be remembered to one and all, especially to Mick's former team-mates, and hopes the Dinner goes well.

Finally my thanks go yet again to George and Pam Ives for their unstinting efforts for Club and School, as well as to Peter Sumpter, the Committee, our colleagues at the School and my own family for all their help during the year. I look forward to meeting even more of you than usual at the Dinner and to, hopefully, breaking all previous attendance records.

In Memoriam

Paul Anthony Yates - 15 September 1932 - 17th July 2007

Just as they used to say about Astaire " ...he can dance a bit ..." you could say that Paul Yates played sport "a bit".

Paul came from the unique generation that knew the world before, during and after World War II, like many children from London he and his sister were parted from their parents and evacuated during the blitz.

After the war he became a pupil at Holloway and obviously enjoyed all the sports at which the school excelled and benefited from the education the school provided. He later went on to Exeter University this was at a time when it was quite unusual for 'ordinary' children to have expectations and achievements beyond a 'trade'.

He met and married his wife Jean in 1956, and moved to Brighton in 1958. His son Graeme was born in 1963. Paul became a teacher and became the Head of Humanities in the school where he taught in Brighton.

His son Graeme recalls

"... he played cricket at school and university prior to playing for the Old Camdenians. We still have a large cup from 1957 which is inscribed 'P Yates OCCC 1957, 1134 runs, 129 wickets'. Suffice to say he could bat and bowl a bit! In Brighton he played for Brighton and Hove cricket club and then for Rottingdean CC.

He also played county table tennis for Sussex. When he stopped playing cricket, he took up golf, at which he also showed some aptitude. He was captain of East Brighton GC in 1988.

In later years he took up bowls, becoming involved as both a player and in building projects and green maintenance at Woodingdean Bowls Club. He was elected president in 2006 which would have been a 3 year term.

Paul is remembered for enthusiasm and dedication in whatever game he played. Always competitive (which he denied!), always seeking improvement.

He was a practical busy person - with a horror of doing nothing. A do it yourself enthusiast and a keen gardener. We often said he was a perfectionist.

A political left winger who enjoyed a good discussion and even if you disagreed with him at least you always knew where he stood....."

Paul was my uncle, I can recall also his delight in "word play" as well as his love of a "good discussion". Paul's enthusiasm and dedication was positively infectious, indicated by the large attendance at his memorial service where family stood beside ex pupils, Old Camedenians and the bowls club members.

In closing I wish to share one of the complete poems read at the service

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an after glow
of smiles when life done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
P' like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun of happy memories
that I Leave when life is done.

John Fitch.

Secretary's Notes

Saturday 20th October, 2007

This Newsletter follows on from the one I sent out in September to all those on Email. Please, if you now have an email address, or can share one, register it with us because we send out more frequently Newsletters, thus the cost to the Club is greatly reduced.

In my September notes, you will observe that I refer to the Annual Football Match between the Club and the School. I have been reprimanded by the Chairman who said that my request to all those who owed me a drink, kept dozens of you away and that was the reason why we were so disappointed with the "turn-out"! He dismissed completely the idea that Spurs playing Arsenal would had an influence. The result was the School beat us 8-0 the football club complaining that the senior sides had Cup Games. I have gone into small print because I do not want to broadcast the result!

Good News! The School is on stream for another £17,000,000 improvement. Planning permission is being sought for the original building's interior to be completely remodelled, the Camdenian Hall is to be retained and developed as a Dance and Drama Studio. The plans for the other newer buildings are also very exciting but I hope the Head will, in his report, give more details. I have also asked that, at the Dinner, there will be an exhibition of the plans, together with illustrations of how the School will look in the 21st Century.

I have also had the opportunity to inspect the new Buildings that have already been completed. The Sports Hall and Swimming Pool are quite magnificent and are now being used by the School. Don't forget to book for a Tour when you come to the Dinner so that you can inspect all these new facilities together with the Sports Lab. where there is now a plaque commemorating the financial assistance rendered by the Camdenians to assist the Sports College bid and provide some of the capital to set up the Lab.

Bob Pinker, Richard Brown, Alan Burnett and myself attended the School to be questioned by year 7 Students about conditions at the School during the War. With the help of the Imperial War Museum, I was able to obtain replica Ration Books and present the Students with food equivalent to a week's rations. Brought back memories!

I cannot stress enough for you to attend the Annual Dinner on Friday November the 30th 2007. This is the Centennial year of the School so help us by coming along to the Celebrations. An order form is enclosed and the price has been maintained, once again, at £25 including all drink during Reception and Dinner. Also on the order form, I have included the details regarding 2 budget Hotels so there is no excuse for you not attending especially as I already know of some coming from North America, especially for the event. Don't try and plead difficult travelling!

The Menu is as traditional:

Smoked Salmon
Roast Beef
Seasonal Vegetables
Syrup Sponge
Chocolate Tart
Fruit Salad
Cheese & Biscuits
Coffee

There is on the ticket application form, a Vegetarian option and if, for dietary or conviction reasons, you would prefer White Meat please indicate, but please, do not order it for any other reason because it causes problems in the kitchen!

Another new member is James E. Smith who was at the School 1941-46.

The Old Camdenians 50+ club is now functioning but there is still an opportunity for members to join. Cost is £60 per annum or by Standing Order of £5 per month. Prizes judged on last Saturday in the month are, the first 2 numbers drawn in the National Lottery and are £65 First and £20 Second. November Prizes are £200 First and £50 Second. Designed to help with the Christmas Shopping; the first two winners in the September Draw were 10 and 49.

The School Shop, which was such a success last year, will be a feature once again at the Dinner. A great range of items will be on sale and elsewhere in this Newsletter, you will find a Price List. We can also arrange for orders to be sent by Post (Strike permitting)

I am concerned that the Postal Strike may have interfered with the ticket applications so those on email please send me a message that you have posted your application, together with the number of tickets ordered. Those of you who receive this Newsletter by Post, if you have any worries that I may not have received your order, please telephone a confirmation, or borrow a friend or family computer to email!!!! We shall publish a weekly list on Email of all ticket applications we have received to date, and I will try and answer, by Email, as I receive applications. If you know anybody who is not on email, please try and book for them..

Travelled recently to take Gordon Clarke out to lunch. He lives in Stratford-upon-Avon in a delightful "Cottage" looking out onto the River and the Theatre with an excellent Pub (Mucky Duck) next door. Hale and Hearty and just about to enter his 95th. Year he sends best regards to all Camdenians, especially those who he taught French and Latin. He did also mention Green and Red House but I forgave him!

Finally Peter Sumpter who has done such a magnificent job organizing the Website and the Club's email section, wishes to relinquish the Website. So we are now looking for a volunteer to take over these duties! The Web has become a very important part of the Club and has meant that we have made contact with many Camdenians in all parts of the World. One Volunteer is worth Ten Pressed Men!!

President's Report to the Old Camdenians 2007

I am delighted to present my fourth report to the Old Camdenians.

Hello and Goodbyes

After a busy end to the school year with a very successful Sports Day and School Centenary Show, school broke up for the holidays on July 20th. The Centenary Celebrations took place over the last week of term, with all students reflecting on the last 100 years of the school. The end of term show, although smaller in scale than in previous years, was very much a reflection of the school and its history. I was delighted that a number of Old Camdenians were able to attend.

We were sad, as ever, to say goodbye to staff at the end of the year, not least to Alex Williamson, Deputy Headteacher, who has moved on to a Headship at Rutlish School in Merton, and to Paul Ash, a long serving member of the Technology Department, and frequent guest at the Annual Dinner.

You will also know that we said goodbye to the first group of girls who completed their 5 years at Holloway School. We are now a well established co-educational school.

We said "hello" to our new Year 7 students on Sept 5th. We are full in all year groups, with long waiting lists for a place: people want to come to Holloway School.

Student Issues

We are pleased to announce that we are continuing with our Head Boy / Head Girl positions. This year's incumbents are Alfie Papa and Dayna Elliot.

The school has worked hard to insist on high standards of uniform to school. We are now a "hat and hoodie free zone".

We are pleased to announce the re-introduction of a House system here at Holloway School. There will be 5 new houses in the school, all named after famous sporting venues in London: Wembley, Wimbledon, Twickenham, Lords, and Olympic. We hope this will spread from a PE/Sports bases phenomenon, to be a vital part of the whole curriculum.

Examination Results

Overall, the school was pleased by most aspects of the GCSE examination results this year. With significant increases in all key performance indicators last year, the school has consolidated its performance in all aspects of GCSE results.

No. of students attaining 5 or more A*-C GCSE passes: 41%

No. of students achieving this with Maths and English: 28%

No. of students achieving one or more GCSE grade: 96%

No. of students achieving 5 or more GCSE passes: 87%

The other key issue was the success of the core subjects, particularly English where the overall performance of 47% A*- C sends a clear message that our students can achieve in a range of subjects.

Sports Facilities

Both the Bridge School and Holloway's enhanced Sports Facilities are now operational, despite some significant snagging issues at the start of the term. I hope that all Old Boys get a chance to see the fantastic facilities. We now have:

- A six lane swimming pool
- A full size sports hall complete with full PE equipment (trampolines, bowling machine, gymnastic equipment)
- A commercial standard fitness suite
- Floodlit full size all weather playing service.

Building Schools for the Future

As you will be aware we are in the first wave of Islington's BSF programme. This means we are to get £18 million of investment on the site, transforming the opportunities for our youngsters and creating a state of the art teaching and learning environment. On October 8th this year the proposals received planning permission, with work hoping to start on the site in the new year. I hope that you take the opportunity to look at the plans that will be displayed at the annual dinner.

The school has worked hard over the past three years to get to this stage. Not only have we positioned ourselves at the front of the queue for BSF, but we have also helped to select a very strong preferred bidder in Transform Schools. The two year building programme will be serviced by high quality decant accommodation and see the removal of some of the less appealing parts of the site.

I have been involved with the design and planning of this project from the outset, and see it as a landmark point in the history of the school.

Arts Achievements, 2006/ 2007

A full and busy year for the Arts at Holloway School and here are some of the highlights:

Dance at Sadler's Wells

Twenty Year 7 to Year 11 students performed on the main stage at Sadler's Wells to great critical acclaim. They were introduced to the audience by the compere and choreographer as continuing the great tradition established by the Holloway Boyz and their outstanding performance was hailed by the audience.

St Alban Cathedral and Abbey Church

Holloway students performed at the World Premier of David Heaths 'Spirit of the Truth' in conjunction with Islington Schools and the London Symphony Orchestra. The main soloist was the world famous deaf percussionist Dame Evelyn Glennie.

Drumming for the South African High Commissioner

The Holloway African drum group performed at Hungerford School at a special assembly attended by the South African High Commissioner.

Centenary Celebrations

The 100th anniversary of Holloway School was celebrated in dance, drama, music and art. Two specially written plays by our resident actor/director were performed to both parents/Old Camdenians and the school students. They were accompanied by music and dance and included an exhibition of stained glass windows created by Year 9 students as part of a project run by the Art department.

Healthy Schools Achievement Ceremony

Holloway dancers performed at this event at the Arts House. A successful and 'well balanced' performance.

Carol Singing for charity

In conjunction with students from the Bridge School a large amount of money was raised at the N1 centre by Holloway pupils for new equipment at the newly opened Bridge School.

OLD CAMDENIANS CRICKET CLUB

CHAIRMAN (2007 SEASON)

JONATHAN COLE

56 HALSEY PARK, LONDON COLNEY, HERTS, AL2 1BH

Report from the Chairman

The season again started with an inter-club game in memory of Paul Scott. Just like the year before we were blessed with splendid weather in April. Little did we know this was our summer! We welcomed a good turnout of both players and spectators, who enjoyed competitive cricket and conversation. Food was laid on in the evening and trophies presented to the successful player / team. Please Paul the same weather for next year and thanks for all the memories.

We ran 3 league teams in the Saracens Hertfordshire league. The 1st XI captaincy for some reason was given to me and somehow we won our first match but failed to push on from there. Too many times over the last few seasons I've seen Old Camdenians teams come out 2nd best to the opposition, but this season was different. The weather often beat us! We lost 7 games to the rain out of 19 games. Of the 12 we played we managed to win 6, which lead many to call me the new Mike Brearley, due to my win ratio and my lack of batting opportunities. If it wasn't for all the rain we would have won 3 or 4 more games, but off the field we were still short in a number of areas to be a promotional side.

The 2nd XI were let down by the committee for not addressing their captaincy issue. Unfortunately the gentlemen voted in had to give up this position before the season started. Wins were hard to come by and it was with much relief that their division 9 status was retained. We need to learn from our mistakes. A regular captain is essential to any team sport.

The 3rd XI found division 11 a little tougher, after gaining promotion the season before. They enjoyed the first half of the season much more than the second half, but they were never relegation candidates and Manish can be applauded for his first stint as captain.

Again the team secretary, Roger Gravett, worked miracles to get 33 players out each Saturday, especially if you consider the appalling weather.

The Sunday side played a full season of games, competing on bank holidays too. Results were very good. Many mid-week games also took place, making even better use of the facilities that we have. The Club v School game took place at the beginning of the season for a change; however that was the only change. The team provided by the School were again poor.

Unfortunately some of the facilities at Burton Hole Lane are looking tired, like some of the players. Ian Salter, Roger Gravett and Wade Knights are doing their best to maintain the site, but others are required to step up. Special thanks also to John Maskell for giving up many Saturday's and doing a splendid job of Umpiring for the 1st XI. I'm sure John would appreciate more names on the rota for next season. Onwards and upwards for next season.

OLD CAMDENIANS CLUB

GOLF DAY REPORT 2007

The club's sixth annual golf day was held in June at Elstree Golf Club and was attended by Brian Barham, Geoff Bench, Ken Brown, Phil Cowley, Gary Davis, John Hensman, Ray Hensman, Paddy Jones, Paul Neary, Mick Northend, George Perry, Bob Richardson, Paul Roberts, Alan Spaul and Pino Varlese.

In addition Fred Chartres, Micky Christou and Martin Quilter joined us for the evening.

The weather was again mainly fine, and with the course in very good condition an enjoyable day was had by those taking part.

An eighteen hole Stableford competition was played in the morning for the Paul Scott memorial trophy and there was a three way tie on 37points. The result was decided in the usual way by taking into account the scoring on the second nine holes, resulting in the following final order:-

- 1st Alan Spaul - 37pts (back nine 25pts)
- 2nd Bob Richardson - 37pts (back nine 21pts)
- 3rd Paul Roberts - 37pts (back nine 19pts)

In the afternoon a fun "Texas Scramble" was played over nine holes with the winning team comprising Phil Cowley, Paddy Jones and Paul Neary.

Other prizes went to :

- Nearest the pin - Alan Spaul
- Longest drive - Ray Hensman
- Nearest the pin in 2 - Pino Varlese

Details of next year's event will be announced in due course.
